Undergraduate students CANNOT select 'research student', or 'graduate student' if they continue to hold the status of undergraduate student at the time of admission to NUPACE.

Choose your prospective School/Graduate School of affiliation according to, 1) your major, and 2) your student status at the time of admission to NUPACE.

*If you continue to hold the status of undergraduate student at the time of admission to NUPACE, you cannot select a Graduate School.

Students willing to participate in NUPACE, even if they are not nominated for a JASSO scholarship, should provide documentation proving that they are financially able to support themselves during the exchange period.

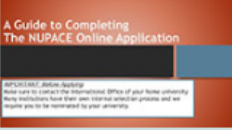

If you select "NO", it is unnecessary to upload any documentation.

D. Language Proficiency

NUPACE requires exchange students to be proficient in EITHER English OR Japanese.

D1. Native Language*

Unless they are considered exempt (see below*), applicants must possess an internationally-recognised test score. Online English language assessments such as the Duolingo test or the EF SET Certificate do not meet the acceptance criteria. Please enquire the NUPACE Office at nupace.admissions@iee.nagoya-u.ac.jp if you have any questions regarding the language test score. The minimum language ability criteria are as follows:

- TOEFL iBT: 79
- IELTS overall band: 6.0
- TOEIC: 780
- CEFR: B2
- CET-6: 485
- JLPT: N1/1 (for students intending to take regular courses offered in Japanese)

*The following students are exempt from providing NUPACE with copies of a test score:

- Those applicants whose native language is English.
- Those applicants studying at institutions in The Netherlands, Scandinavia, Germany, Austria, Hong Kong, Singapore or at Bilkent University in Turkey.
- Those applicants majoring in English, or who are being / have been educated in English.

(Please enquire at nupace.admissions@iee.nagoya-u.ac.jp if you feel that you should be exempted from providing a language proficiency supporting document, making sure to clearly stipulate your reasons.)

D2. State the name of any internationally-recognised language examination (e.g. TOEFL, IELTS, TOEIC, JLPT) taken, and scores obtained

Name of Test	Score<s>
Select a test	<input type="text"/>
Select a test	<input type="text"/>
Select a test	<input type="text"/>

D3. Have you ever had any Japanese language instruction?*

☐ Yes ☐ No

D4. Approximately how many Chinese characters (kanji) can you read?

Kanji

Certificates not listed in this section are unacceptable.*

*Unacceptable documentation includes letters issued by the applicant's home university, language teachers, etc.

Applicants who hold JLPT N1 are also required to provide their scores.
